

For Immediate Release:

Contact:

Julie Cooley
Director of Marketing Communications
317.867.8363
jcooley@imminet.com

IMMI's Tom Braden Named a CTO of the Year by the IBJ

September 3, 2018 (Westfield, IN) – Tom Braden, IMMI's Vice President of Enterprise Technology, has been named a CTO of the Year by the Indianapolis Business Journal and TechPoint's CTO/Tech25 of the Year program. The program honored 37 men and women who excel at using technology to help their employers achieve their strategic goals.

Tom joined IMMI in 2014 and is responsible for all infrastructure IT initiatives for IMMI's global locations. A 1990 graduate of DePauw University, Tom regularly attends professional continuing education courses at Unitek College in the San Francisco Bay area. He holds 13 technical certifications in various information technology fields. Prior to joining IMMI, Tom served for 12 years as an Infantry officer in the Indiana Army National Guard. He is and his wife, Angie, call Westfield home and enjoy spending time with their four children.

About IMMI: IMMI® is the trusted, global leader of safety solutions, helping to protect millions of lives every day. For almost sixty years, IMMI has led the way in developing, designing, testing and manufacturing innovative safety restraints and systems. IMMI's safety products are found worldwide on car seats, heavy trucks, school buses, recreational/off road, military, fire/EMS, motor coach, and construction vehicles. Privately owned, headquartered in Westfield, Indiana and operating seven additional global facilities, IMMI is also home to CAPE®, the world's leading state-of-the-art testing facility.